March 15, 2020
Third Sunday in Lent: Inviting God's Wisdom
Exploring Discernment Practices

Nursery care is available for all children up to age 5. Our professional caregivers provide activities, crafts, snacks, and a scripture-based curriculum. The nursery is on the second floor, Room 203.
Rocking chairs are available at the back of the Sanctuary.

Prayer books are available at the back of the Sanctuary or in the Marion Street Lobby.
Please share any prayers you have to be read aloud during the Prayers of the People.

Hearing devices are available from the ushers.

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves, like locked rooms and like books that are now written in a very foreign tongue.

Do not now seek the answers, which cannot be given you because you would not be able to live them.

And the point is, to live everything. Live the questions now.

Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answer.

GATHERING MUSIC/INTROIT

We transition into our sacred time together as music invokes the spirit of God.

Veni Sancte Spiritus

Taizé Chant
Krystal Morin, Kristen Murdaugh, Nicholas Duffin,
Jacob O'Shea, soloists

*CHIMING THE TRINITY * means we invite you to rise in body and spirit
We call forth God the Creator, Savior and Holy Spirit in musical tones.

*OPENING HYMN

We lift our voices, bodies, minds

Come and Find the Quiet Center

BEACH SPRING

and spirits as a community in a song of praise.

words by Shirley Erena Murray

We invite you to sing, speak or silently read the words together.

*Come and find the quiet center in the crowded life we lead,
Find the room for hope to enter, find the frame where we are freed:
Clear the chaos and the clutter, clear our eyes that we can see
All the things that really matter, be at peace, and simply be.*

*Silence is a friend who claims us, cools the heat and slows the pace,
God it is who speaks and names us, knows our being, touches base,
Making space within our thinking, lifting shades to show the sun,
Raising courage when we're shrinking, finding scope for faith begun.*

*In the Spirit let us travel, open to each other's pain,
Let our loves and fears unravel, celebrate the space we gain:
There's a place for deepest dreaming, there's a time for heart to care,
In the Spirit's lively scheming there is always room to spare.*

GREETINGS

We warmly welcome all into our midst.

Kent French and Amy Norton
Senior Pastor and Associate Pastor

One: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

*CENTERING PRAYER in unison

We center ourselves in the awareness of God's presence.

God of Love,
to you all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from you no secrets are hid:

Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Response (R)

I delight to do your will, O my God, I delight to do your will.

The quartet will sing the Response (R) the first time alone; please join them the second time.

1. I waited patiently for God, who inclined to me and héard my cry.

2. *God drew me up from the desolate pit,
out of the míry bog;
God set my feet up on a rock,
making my stéps secure.*

3. *God put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise tó our God.
Many will see and fear,
and put their trúst in God.*

4. *Happy are those who make Gód their trust,
Who do not turn to the proud,
to those who go astray aftér false gods. R*

5. *You have multiplied, O God my God, your wondrous deeds
and your thóughts toward us;
None can compáre with you.*

*Were I to proclaim and téll of them,
They would be more than cán be counted.*

6. *Sacrifice and offering you do not desire,
but you have given me an ópen ear.
Burnt offering and sin offering you have nót required.*

7. *Then I said, "Hére I am;
In the scroll of the book it is wrritten of me. R*

8. *"I delight to do your will, Ó my God;
your law is withín my heart."*

9. *I have told the glad news of deliverance
in the great cóngregation;
See, I have not restrained my lips,
as you knów, O God.*

10. *I have not hidden your saving help
withín my heart,
I have spoken of your faithfulness
any yóur salvation;*

*I have not concealed your steadfast love
ánd your faithfulness.*

I have not concealed them from the great cóngregation.

11. *Do not, O God, withhold your mercy from me;
Let your steadfast love and your faithfulness
keep me sáfe forever. R*

PRAYER OF CONFESSION in unison, based on the Prayer of Saint Francis Together, we confess the ways we have gotten out of step with God and seek to re-center ourselves in the Love of God.

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Where we have sown the seeds of hatred, let us sow love;
where there is injury, let us sow pardon;
where there is discord, union;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.

Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life...

SILENT CONFESSON

We continue praying in silence for up to one minute for our personal confessions and spiritual centering.

One: O God, in your compassion;
All: Hear our prayer.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON please rise

We receive the Good News that we are loved, forgiven and renewed in God's presence.

*THE PEACE We share this Good News among ourselves with words of Peace and Love, while we bump elbows, bow to one another, or make the Peace sign.

One: The Peace of Christ and the Love of God be with you always;
All: And also with you.

*PEACE RESPONSE

We re-gather with our voices in song.

Return Again
by Shlomo Carlebach

All Sing

*Return again, return again,
Return to the land of your soul. (repeat)*

*Return to who you are,
Return to what you are,
Return to where you are born and reborn again*

*Return again, return again,
Return to the land of your soul.*

Discernment: Finding Clarity in the Chaos

Week 3: Discerning through Scripture, Saints, and Prayer

Take-home questions

These are some questions and ideas for you to reflect further on today's worship and to join us in our collective Lenten study of Discernment.

In today's Gospel story (Luke 6:12-16), we heard about Jesus withdrawing in prayer before he calls his disciples.

What do you think he might have prayed about?

What were some questions he might have been considering?

Have you ever prayed over an upcoming choice? What were the results?

How might you benefit to pray regularly over decisions for which you are responsible?

We also heard about different discernment practices in worship.

What practices have you used in your life? What practices intrigue you?

If you find yourself typically drawn to solo discernment practices, what would it be like to take on a practice that involves others? Or vice-versa?

What role does God have in your discernment?

Some suggested practices for the week ahead

These are some easy-to-try spiritual practices that can help you as you launch into a season of discernment. By no means do you need to try all at once. We invite you to try them out as you see fit, see how they feel and then report back to us next week. You are welcome to join us in study groups after Sunday worship in Lent or other times. Check out the homepage link at the bottom of the page.

Lectio Divina: a practice to try this week

Lectio Divina (literally divine reading) is a way of becoming immersed in the Scriptures very personally. It draws on the way Jews read the Haggadah, a text read during Passover that retells the Exodus story. Haggadah means “telling” and along with being a physical text, the word captures the practice of telling and retelling a story to find deeper meaning.

The Christian form of Lectio Divina was first introduced by St. Gregory of Nyssa (c 330- 395), and also encouraged by St. Benedict of Nursia (c 480-547), the founder of the Benedictine order. It's a way of developing a closer relationship with God by reflecting prayerfully on God's word in scripture. In Lectio Divina, the chosen spiritual text is read four times in total, giving an opportunity to think deeply about it and respond thoughtfully. When we practice Lectio Divina, we sometimes can imagine we're actually involved in the events of Scripture.

Here's how to get started:

Prepare

Light a candle and/or pray a prayer of invitation, saying something like, “God, let me/us hear from you,” and spend a few minutes sitting quietly so one’s mind is open to hearing from God.

Lectio (Read)

The first reading is an opportunity to get to know the Scripture passage. Listen carefully for any words or phrases that seem to jump out. Write down or share those words if you are doing this with someone. No need for lots of explanation, just share what caught your attention.

Meditatio (Reflect)

On the second reading of the same passage, listen for the deeper meaning God has infused in this scripture particularly for you in your life today. How does it make you feel? If there's no immediate response, ask God to be more present with you.

Oratio (Respond)

After a third reading, what action could you take based on this message from God, that would keep up the conversation with God and deepen your connections to the Spirit.

Contemplatio (Rest)

After the final reading, spend around 5 minutes in silent contemplation. This doesn't need to be a time of prayer or deep thought — just sit quietly and allow God to work. When the mind starts to wander and dart here and there, bring it gently back to stillness again.

Practicing Gratitude

Another practice is to name and write down three specific things each day for which you are thankful.

It could be anything: time with a loved one, a delicious meal, an unexpected break in your day, a kind exchange with a stranger, something in nature.

The point is to make it specific, and spend some time in your mind reliving the experience, savoring the feelings and thoughts they brought up in you.

This is a core practice that neuroscientists suggest in helping change some of our brain patterns from our predetermined negative, anxious bias to a cultivated, more positive, hopeful outlook.

Prayer Partners

We welcome EVERYONE at United Parish to try having a prayer partner in Lent.

You may think that you are not that spiritual, or that you don't know how to pray, or even if you do, you don't want to share that with someone else, that it's private. That's OK. Just give it a try.

It's a holy experiment, basically committing to having a spiritual buddy in the congregation with whom you talk for 5-15 minutes each week from now through Easter (April 12).

You can sign up at unitedparishbrookline.org/prayer-partners-during-lent

An online “data-driven” daily discernment practice

Methodist colleagues at the Harvard-Epworth Church in Cambridge have created a daily discernment opportunity, in which they email you a question each day to answer as part of your own private discernment practice. You can check it out and sign up at 4oform.org/signup

Scripture for your week ahead

Ponder this verse from the Epistles (James 1:5) If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

Take a few minutes to read and reread it during the week, paying attention to how it lands with you at different times and in different situations. Are you able to trust God to provide wisdom when you ask for it? How is God calling you to listen and be receptive to divine wisdom?

Throughout your week, you may also want to re-read the verses from Psalm 40, that we chanted in worship today.

WELCOME

We at the United Parish in Brookline believe that all people are made in the image of God and embrace and cherish every person and every kind of family. Jesus Christ welcomed everyone; we seek to follow his example in our own life and worship, by extending God's love and grace abundantly and equally to everyone. We affirm and welcome all people to share in worship, fellowship and leadership with us, to join us in a diversity of race, gender, sexual identity, physical and mental ability, ethnicity and economic means.

We have joined with other Open and Affirming (United Church of Christ) and Welcoming and Affirming (American Baptist Churches USA), as well as with the Reconciling Ministries Network (United Methodist Churches) to declare that we are and will remain open to all people.

We invite you to consider becoming a member of the United Parish family. You may become a member by transferring membership or by a statement of faith. If you desire to retain ties with a former church, we invite you to become an associate or affiliate member for the time you are with us.

*We ask that you silence all electronic devices.
Please see an usher if you would like a hearing assistive device.*

Because our building is open to the public, an adult should accompany children if/when they leave the worship service.
